Due to my working commitments I am not able to sail as often as I wish. Despite lack of practice and occasional confusion, as well as few near capsizes situations I still enjoy spending time on water. Sailing always gives me a good break from every day's life.

To help you to find solutions, this time all words in your APYC Wordsearch #4 are coming from this edition of On The Lake. It does not necessarily mean the new game is easy. It should still puzzle you for some time...

Enjoy the reading!

Commodore's Comment by Jonathan Pulham

Most Bay clubs have stopped sailing by now for the Winter, and we have a number of visiting sailors at APYC already joined as Winter members. On behalf of our existing members, I'd like to welcome all new and returning Winter members to the club. Fingers crossed for some pleasant sailing weather!

The club should shortly be receiving 3 new Pacers, to be used in our training programs on Saturday mornings and also for use at other times by members, especially by those members having just completed training who want to continue sailing but maybe aren't quite ready to buy a boat. Club Boat hire over the last couple of years has been rather low-key, offered more as a means to help newer sailors decide on a class of boat than as a regular activity. Our trainers recently met and have decided on a proper boat hire policy, which will formalise the process a bit. It has been decided to charge a hire fee (probably $15) for the use of club boats, to cover the cost of maintaining and insuring the fleet.

For those members who would like to get involved in club racing but are unsure about starting, I think it would be great if existing sailors could make themselves available to take out new sailors in a Pacer on Saturday afternoons. I will be approaching members directly to get together a list of those interested, and maybe work out a roster similar to rescue boat duty.

There will probably be another newsletter out before the AGM in August, but now is a good time to start thinking about what you could offer the club by joining the committee. Major positions which will need to be filled are commodore, vice commodore and secretary. Volunteer before you are volunteered!

Speaking of volunteers, one of our long standing rescue boat drivers is finishing his time at the club. I am sure all members will join me in wishing Ian Willmott all the best for the future. His smiling face on rescue boat will be missed.

Best wishes also from all of us to Les Wood, who is currently recovering in hospital after heart surgery. Hope you are up and about soon Les.

Some dates to mark in the diary now....

The club's annual junior coaching regatta, Wintersail, will take place on the last weekend of the July school holidays - Friday 13th – Sunday 15th July. More information regarding entry appears later in this newsletter. If you are able to assist with the general running of the club on this weekend, please let me know.

At the end of July the club has arranged a promotional / fundraiser BBQ at South Melbourne Bunnings. The day will be Sunday 29th July. We'll need a team of helpers on the day to cook and serve customers, and to talk about our great club to possible new members!

On Saturday 18th August the club will again host the Melbourne Midwinters Open Teams Regatta. This event is sailed in teams of six in three Pacers, and is a more social event than say schools teams racing. We will of course need some help to run the event, but we are also being encouraged to enter a team ourselves this year.

Anyone interested?

Finally, there will be a free Responsible Serving of Alcohol (RSA) course at Port Phillip City Council on Monday 25th June. 6:30pm – 10:30pm. You'll need to get in early for this since the free ones are always filled quickly. As a Level 3 Good Sports Club, all members helping behind our bar must have this qualification.

That's all from me for now. Remember that more regular club updates are able to be received by e-mail as long as you keep your address current with the membership secretary.

Sparrow Shield by Chris Pulham

As we now have 3 privately owned Sparrow's in the club and a Sparrow shield last won in 1984, we think it appropriate to have a short championship series. We will initially have a series of Four races, three to count, the dates are as follows:

July 7th

Aug 4th

Aug 25th

Sept 8th

Louis, Bevan, Graeme, get down and practice

We have 3 club Sparrows if any other members would like to join in

If this is a success, we will have to find some Mirrors to race with David Chris.

APYC Welcomes the following New Members

Marlene Johnson (senior);

Glenn Davey, Jacqui Greene and Ruthven and Nicholas Davey-Greene (family);

Adrian McMillan (student);

Joseph Corser (junior, has Opti 1102);

Graeme & Colette Cox and children Harry and Sophie (family). Graeme is a former member returning. He sails Sparrow 146 "Torakina", a once top boat -- look for it on the Championship board. A rather belated welcome (from last December, sorry) to Dimitri Batras (senior); Steve Bobko (senior); Ricardo Adan & Amaia Jorge (family).

Welcome also to these winter members:

Impulse's Go Inland by Danny Marrinon

Eight of the APYC impulse fleet sailors headed inland to Cairn Curran in Northern Victoria for the state titles over the March Labour Day long weekend. Cairn Curran sailing club has been without water for sometime and is in a bit of a rebuilding phase, so they were very happy to see forty one Impulses and nine Javelins invade their club for three days. Most of the entrants camped beside the club and enjoyed the hospitality that country sailing has to offer. That is great lunches, great dinners and waking to the smell of bacon cooking in the morning.

The conditions were light as to be expected for an inland club in March with Jim Scott and Murray Shaw from Williamstown Sailing Club taking out first and second, with our Dougal Watt getting third. Mike Howell managed to finish on even points with his South Australian nemesis Phill Wise in the Grand Masters division. I don't know how many state and national titles these two have finished on even points, but I am sure it is worth a follow up story. Of the forty one entries there were five juniors. Phillip Cook and Alyssa Marrinon flying the flag for APYC. Phillip had a close series and ended up coming third on count back to Harrison Mann who was sailing 365. A lot of APYC people would remember this boat as the Flying Gherkin when she was sailed by Ronnie Parker. Alyssa sailed the series with the 6.6 sail so she has been claiming that division.

Peter Whitaker launched his new boat En Bateau 621. To quote Kath and Kim "that's French you know" Peter is very happy with his new Bateau and Jillian was nice enough to let Peter go away with her for a long weekend so they could get to know each other better. Alyssa now has Peter's old boat Bubbles 526 which she thinks her father is going to do some work on. Lucky for Alyssa she knows she is better off sailing the boat rather than wait for any repairs to be done. Michael Cook has been working on restoring a timber Impulse for William. This boat is not far from being re launched with a new name. Rumour has it there may be another new Impulse coming to APYC with a Solo sailor looking at the older boat that will come onto the market. So for those who dream of sailing the sports car of dinghies on the lake just ask and we can find you one. Plus if you think you are too light for an Impulse there is the smaller 6.6 sail if you wish.

Pursuing the State by Silke Weber

After getting only a taste of the State Championships 2010 at Williamstown, this year I really wanted to compete for the entire event. So when I was offered a spot on a Pacer Pursuit with the worlds most patient skipper, I was quick to say yes. And when someone mentioned that it would require me to use the trapeze, I was not very concerned - after all, how hard could it be?

On the start day of the races though my excitement is mixed with a good portion of nervousness. After all, our test sail the weekend before was spent mostly in the water, less in the boat. I have heard enough jokes about swimming lessons and would much prefer to spend the day keeping dry.

But then I probably should have stayed on land...

Thankfully, the weather is a bit calmer than on the ill-fated day of our first test run. It also seems like we used up all our blunders and manage to stay upright through both races.

Although I knew that a Pursuit is meant to go faster than a Pacer, I didn't realise how much faster it would feel to me, balancing on the side of the boat and held only by a thin piece of black rope. But caution gives way to enthusiasm and soon Jonathan has to stop me from throwing myself out of the boat as soon as we go into a beat, I am quickly turning into a trapeze junky! Only while handling the spinnaker I still don't trust myself completely outside of the boat and so I make do with leaning out as far over the gunwale as I can. This turns me into a convenient wave breaker for Jonathan behind me and me soaking wet - again.

But oh, how she flies!

Unfortunately the next day dawns a lot calmer. So calm in fact that the race is postponed for what seems an indefinite time. Finally even the worlds most patient skipper won't wait any longer and we set out for a late morning sail. Which is where we still are when the committee boat sets out and the races start.

Although I am itching for more wind, Jonathan seems to prefer the light breeze. And he seems to have some sort of 6th sense on where to tack to catch just a little bit more wind than the other competing Pursuits. Picking our course well, he leads us towards the finish line and secures us the race. Unfortunately it will be our only win. After what shall from here on only be referred to as "the spinnaker incident", we lose our lead in the second race and although highly motivated by our earlier success the day before cannot repeat it on the following day.

None of which dampens my enjoyment of those races at all. After all, how could a sunny day be better spent than in a fast boat with almost perfect wind, a good skipper and in the company of a large group of fellow sailing enthusiasts? Exactly.

Galley Roster by Pam Pulham

Thankyou once again to Ian Cook for providing us with delicious lasagne and salads for our Summer Presentation night in April.

A big event coming up is Wintersail – a coaching clinic for young sailors and youth. This takes place over 3 days: Friday 13th, Saturday 14th and Sunday 15th July.

Assistance is needed in the Galley, at least 3 helpers, for each of these 3 days. Volunteers please call Pam on 9598 0820.

Assistance is also needed for Galley Duty every Saturday for preparation of lunches for our members who are sailing. Having two people rostered for the morning makes for an enjoyable time volunteering.

Thankyou to Grant and Alyssa for stepping in at times over the past few months.

ROSTER 10:30 to 2PM each Saturday

If you are sailing you finish at 1:15PM Time to get to briefing and get changed for the race.
